Agenda

June 8, 2022

1. Call to Order

The Chair will call the meeting to order upon the arrival of a quorum of the CPRB.

2. Roll Call

The Secretary will call the roll of the membership.

3. Action on Agenda

Pursuant to Civilian Police Review Board Procedures Manual, Section 3.3 Setting of Agenda, additions to the agenda may be proposed by any member and will be added to the agenda provided no objection is raised by any member.

If there is an objection, then a vote shall be taken on the addition and the item will be added to the agenda only if a majority approves of the addition.

Recommendation: The CPRB will review the agenda and make any additions and/or modifications followed by action on the agenda.

4. Action on Minutes

The CPRB will review and act on the minutes from the meeting held on March 9, 2022.

For more information, refer to Minutes - March 9, 2022.

Recommendation: The CPRB will review and act on the minutes from the meeting held on March 9, 2022.

5. Public Comments

The CPRB will provide time for public comments. Any citizen of the City of Durham wishing to speak will have an opportunity to do so. Speakers must provide a mail/email address and telephone number so that the Chair may reply to comments and/or questions.

All speakers will have two minutes to speak and are requested to refrain from addressing issues related to personnel matters or complaints before the CPRB.

Recommendation: The CPRB will receive citizen comments and direct the Chair to respond, as deemed appropriate.

6. Old Business

a. Debrief of 2022 Community Police Relations Forum

The CPRB will discuss the 2022 Community Police Relations Forum held on May 11, 2022.

Pursuant to the Civilian Police Review Board Procedural Manual, Section 1, Organization, Section 1.12, Annual Report, the CPRB must host one (1) community forum per fiscal year to receive feedback from the public on the Durham Police Department complaint process and Community-Police relations.

Recommendation: The CPRB will discuss the 2022 Community Police Relations Forum held on May 11, 2022.

7. New Business

a. Professional Standards Division Quarterly Report (January 1 - March 31, 2022)

The CPRB will review the Professional Standards Division Quarterly Report (January 1 - March 31, 2022).

The Professional Standards Division of the Police Department submits quarterly reports to the CPRB summarizing the number and types of investigations received during the previous quarter. The reports also include the date of alleged incident occurred, type of the alleged violation (include applicable rules and/or general orders) and outcome of the investigation (sustained, not sustained, exonerated, unfounded or policy failure).

The reports are to be submitted as follows:

REPORTING TIME PERIOD	REPORT DUE DATE
January - March	April 30
April - June	July 31
July - September	October 31
October - December	January 31

For more information, refer to Professional Standards Division Quarterly Report (January 1 - March 31, 2022)(04-01-22).

Recommendation: The CPRB will receive the information, ask questions, provide comments and/or act, if necessary.

b. CY 2021 Professional Standards Annual Report

The Civilian Police Review Board will review the CY 2021 Professional Standards Annual Report.

The Professional Standards Annual Report is a review of Durham Police Department (DPD) investigations involving both sworn and non-sworn employees of the DPD conducted in 2019 which deprives from then analysis of key areas including: Internal Affairs Investigations, Bias Based Policing, Use of Force, Vehicle Pursuits and Department Motor Vehicle Collisions.

For more information, refer to CY 2021 Professional Standards Annual Report (04-08-22).

Recommendation: The CPRB will receive the information, ask questions, provide comments and/or act, if necessary.

8. Announcements

Members of the CPRB and liaisons will make announcements of upcoming events which may interest other members or impact the work of the CRPB.

Recommendation: The CPRB and liaisons will make announcements.

9. Adjournment
