

News Release

For Immediate Release: October 9, 2019

Durham Hosts Contractors Empowerment Event October 19

What: 2nd Annual Contractors Empowerment Event

Who: City of Durham Equity and Inclusion Department and the Durham County Minority and Women Owned Business Enterprise Program

When: Saturday, October 19, 2019, from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Where: Archie K. Davis Conference Center, 12 Davis Dr., Durham, N.C. 27709

Fast Facts:

- Contractors are invited to come learn strategies to accelerate their business growth and connect with other professionals in the public sector and private industry.
- Attendees will interact with panelists representing several business enhancement categories including, but not limited to, administrative support, finance, building opportunity pipelines, marketing, risk management, and accessing community business assistance resources.
- Panelists will also be available to speak one-on-one with attendees and refreshments will be served.
- Pre-registration for this free event is now available at <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/2nd-annual-contractors-empowerment-event-tickets-73853240029>.

About the City of Durham Equity and Inclusion Department

The City of Durham Equity and Inclusion Department, formerly the Equal Opportunity/Equity Assurance Department, supports an environment of inclusive and equitable community economic development that promotes shared prosperity. The department aligns into two divisions – Racial Equity and Inclusion and Contracting and Compliance.

###