Durham Hosts Annual Senior Holiday Party Tonight

Over 800 Mature Adults Scheduled to Attend

DURHAM, NC - Over 800 mature adults ages 55 or better will attend Durham's Annual Senior Holiday Party hosted by Durham Parks and Recreation (DPR) tonight.

The celebration will be held at the Sheraton Hotel and Convention Center (4700 Emperor Boulevard) from 4:30 p.m. – 7:30 p.m. WRAL News Anchor Ken Smith will serve as emcee.

Participants will enjoy food, fellowship, and fun. During the course of the night, DPR will crown a new Senior Holiday Party King and Queen who will receive the royal treatment during the event. The Majestic Angels dance group will perform and participants will hear from the Durham Senior Games Ambassador, Dr. Louise Gooche.

The celebration will conclude on the dance floor as participants move to the music provided by DJ Adrian Long and the soulful sounds of the headliner R&B Band Risse. Each participant will receive a special holiday gift.
