

Durham City Council At-Large Vacancy

The Durham City Council is continuing its process to fill the At-Large vacancy for the unexpired term created by former City Council Member Steve Schewel, who was elected Mayor during the 2017 municipal election. The links below are for supporting information being used in the selection process.

Applications Submitted for City Council At-Large Vacancy

Other Pertinent Information

Candidate Questionnaire for City Council At-Large Vacancy