The City of Durham is working to make sure the Bull City's growing Hispanic and Latino populations are heard and involved in the decisions that impact them and the lives of all residents. In this new City Life episode, Host Beverly B. Thompson sits down with the City's Bilingual Human Relations Specialist Lenin Martinez-Gallo and the Mayor's Hispanic/Latino Committee Chair Anabel Rosa to find out what's being done to foster this involvement and to support these communities.
