Honor a DPD Female Officer, Civilian for Women's History Month Nominations Open until February 25 for 2019 EAGLE Awards

The Durham Police Department (DPD) is accepting nominations from the community for its EAGLE Awards that honor women who demonstrate Excellence, Achievement and Gallantry in Law Enforcement. In conjunction with national Women's History Month in March, the EAGLE Awards recognize the exemplary contributions of women employees at DPD, partner agencies, and in the community who advance the ideals of public safety; enhance the department's organizational culture; and/or have forged new paths as pioneers in the profession.

Entries are also welcome from the public. The awards categories are: Rookie Commendation; Crime-Fighter Commendation, Sworn Supervisor Commendation; Civilian Administrator Commendation; Civilian Employee Commendation; "Sister-in-Law" Commendation and Trailblazer Commendation.

Award criteria and nomination forms are available on www.durhampolice.com. Scroll to the bottom of the home page. Click "2019 DPD Women's History Month Award Nomination Form." The deadline for submission of entries is Monday, February 25, 2019. For more information email Kimberle.Walker@durhamnc.gov in the department's Public Affairs Unit or call (919) 560-4322 extension 29194.
